

About TotalCare...

The Owner and your Host, Dympna Fitzgerald Kiely, practices her profession since 1982.

Her training made her travel through Europe, and she cherishes special memories of her stages in Paris where she improved her skills under supervision of the most famous masters.

She became a trainer herself for many advanced natural therapies and organizes workshop throughout Ireland.

"TotalCare is, as the name suggests, where we take immense pride in our work. We feel that we can give a true safe and natural solution to many skin and body health requirements, using an array of high Tec specialist equipment and hand on."

The Beauty, Health & Spa on the Royal Parade in Killaloe, recently opened, is the crown on her work.
